6. [REDACTED] Pursuant to arrangements made yesterday, I personally delivered to Senator Leverett Saltonstall a copy of the Director's prepared statement to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, remained in the Senator's office while he read it, and then brought the statement back. The Senator commented that there was not much in the statement that he did not already know, but thanked us for making it available to him and asked that we convey his best wishes to the Director.

7. [REDACTED] Phyllis Beach called to say that the State Department has concurred in the Agency's paper on comparison of economics requested by Senator Jacob Javits when the Director appeared before the Joint Economic Committee. Minor suggestions made by State are being incorporated into the paper which will be forwarded to this office for STATOTHR transmittal to the Committee staff.
